

Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas

Shivalik Public School, Phase 6, Mohali celebrated Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas on 15 November 2025 with immense zeal and cultural reverence. Students from Classes 1 to 5 and 9 to 12 enthusiastically participated in a series of thoughtfully curated activities designed to honour and highlight the rich legacy of India's tribal communities.

Students of Classes 1 and 2 were introduced to the inspiring life and sacrifices of Birsa Munda and viewed an informative documentary that offered insights into tribal traditions, culinary habits, and ways of life. They also created graceful Warli art compositions using simple yet expressive geometric forms. Students of Class 5 engaged in a vibrant Tribal Wall Art activity, exploring the essence of Warli and Gond art traditions. Their artworks—depicting scenes of nature, dance, farming, and rural life—brought a burst of colour and cultural symbolism to the school corridors.

For Class VI, a specially designed PowerPoint Presentation was shown, highlighting the life and legacy of tribal freedom fighters, unique traditions of different tribes, and the importance of preserving tribal identity. In Class VII, an engaging quiz competition was organised, covering questions on tribal culture, major tribal groups of India, and the aims of Janjatiya Gaurav Diwas. Students participated with great enthusiasm, showcasing their knowledge and curiosity. Students of Class VIII expressed their understanding through paragraph writing on the topic 'Tribal Culture' . They wrote about tribal lifestyles, art forms, festivals, and the need to respect and protect indigenous traditions.

Students from Classes 9 to 12 enriched the celebration through powerful and creative expressions. A display board competition among Class 9 students showcased impressive presentations featuring tribal motifs, symbolic art, and cultural narratives. Class 9 students also presented a compelling nukkad natak that portrayed the resilience, struggles, and cultural ethos of India's indigenous communities, leaving a strong impact on the audience. Adding an intellectual dimension to the event, Class 11 students organised an engaging and well-researched quiz on tribal culture, traditions, and eminent tribal personalities, fostering curiosity and awareness among the seniors. Students of Classes 10 and 12 contributed through meticulously prepared displays, artworks, and presentations highlighting the invaluable contributions of tribal heroes and the diversity of India's indigenous heritage.

The collective efforts of the students created a meaningful and culturally enriched celebration, deepening respect and understanding for India's tribal communities.
