

Shivalik Public School organized a musical show “Expressions” for classes I and II . Class I students performed a play on the famous story by “Rudyard Kipling” on “The boy in the jungle” while class II students performed a play “ The Red flower” conveying a message “Always remain calm and use the presence of mind to get out of adverse situations.” The beautiful display of facial expressions, enactment, yoga and voice modulation kept the audience spell bound. Principal Dr. Anupkiran Kaur applauded the efforts of students as well as teachers. She further added that such activities should be encouraged to enhance life skills.
