

SHIVALIK PUBLIC SCHOOL

100 DAYS READING CHALLENGE

Reading is an exercise for the mind. It helps kids calm down and relax, opening doors of new knowledge to enlighten their minds. From developing cognitive skills, building vocabulary, improving focus and concentration of young minds, reading is a skill which raises empathetic and confident leaders. Shivalik Public School initiated 'DROP EVERYTHING AND READ' - 100 DAYS READING CHALLENGE which included discrete fun activities spread over fourteen weeks. The idea behind the challenge was to inculcate reading habit among the students through various activities. The students actively participated including their friends, family and grandparents in the challenge. Love for reading thrived and echoed in every corner of the school.

WEEK 1: LIBRARY VISIT

The students visited the school library and shared their views on their favourite books and shared their recommendations with each other. Book talks and discussions were an important part of the visit.

WEEK 2: READ AND WRITE

In order to develop the analytical and creative skills in the students a fun activity of reading the story- THE THREE DIAMONDS and then creating your own story based on similar theme was organised for the students giving them the confidence of creating something unique out of their own imagination. Students came up with amazing stories and characters.

WEEK 3: READING POETRY

Poetry is the extraordinary perception of the ordinary. It is certainly the most creative form of art. The students were encouraged to read poetry of their choice to their friends and family and share their videos. The students and their families actively participated in the challenge and enjoyed it to the fullest.

WEEK 4: READ WITH FRIENDS AND SIBLINGS

Students were encouraged to read their favourite stories to their friends and siblings. This activity helped the students and their families to bond over books and spend time with each other as well.

WEEK 5: READ AND INTERVIEW YOUR CHARACTER

The students read a story by Ruskin Bond together in the class and a group discussion of all the characters was organised. This was a fun activity where students enacted as the characters from the story and organised a panel discussion where the whole class posed questions as news reporters.

